

Name: _____

Clause Structure Analysis

Directions: Circle the verb, underline the subject, and double underline any complements in the clauses below. Next, add the words and phrases from the clauses to the chart below. The sentences are not listed in order, so use the shaded boxes as clues. The shaded boxes indicate an empty slot. Also, if the finite verb is preceded by an adverb, write the adverb with the verb in the finite verb slot.

- A. We'll provide feedback on every proposal.
- B. The theme of the conference will be based on the concepts laid out in the New Urban Agenda.
- C. Attendees consistently rate our speakers as a top conference highlight.
- D. For submission details, please visit the following resources.
- E. We're developing an incredible education program for AIA '18.

	Adverb/ Prepositional Phrase	Subject	Finite Verb	Other Verbs	Complement(s)	Adverb/ Prepositional Phrase
1
2
3
4
5

Note: See p. 3 of Caplan (2012) for more examples. The chart in this handout was adapted from Caplan (2015) with examples from the AIA '18 conference submission site (<https://www.conferenceabstracts.com/cfp2/login.asp?EventKey=CLOIEZVB>)

Name: _____

Clause Structure Task

Directions: Use the vocabulary from the conference exploration word list or the lists in the classroom to write clauses within the slot structure below. Remember that this chart will only fit one clause. This chart does not allow for every possible combination, but it will help as a starting point.

Adverb/ Prepositional Phrase	Subject	Finite Verb	Other Verbs	Complement(s)	Adverb/ Prepositional Phrase
	The designer	proposed		a new approach	to the client's problem.